PROSPECT.

Prospect June 10, 1910—"Nim" Petty has a narrow escape. Mr. Nimrod Petty who is employed by S. H. Gast, hauling logs, had a narrow escape from being crushed to death Tuesday morning while crossing the C. D. & M. & Hocking Valley tracks with a wagon well loaded with logs. He was on his last load, which he had been hauling from the woods owned by B. K. Herbst, about a half-mile south of Prospect, along the railroad tracks, which he was crossing when the accident happened. In order to reach the road it was necessary for Mr. Petty to cross both railroads on private crossings, and with some extra effort by the horses he safely crossed the C. D. & M. But when he attempted to drive up over the Hocking track, which is several feet higher than the C. D. & M. grade; possibly on account of the unevenness of the drive-way and partly on account of the wagon being overloaded, the wagon turned over and rolled down the grade into the ditch, sending the logs rolling into a heap. Had Mr. Petty not been thoughtful and quick to act, he would possibly have been killed instantly, but he gave a dangerous jump of several feet into the air which scarcely landed him in a safe position. The horses were somewhat strained as the horses were wrenched from their control. It required considerable work to set the wagon aright and reload the logs. Mr. Gast sent an extra team of horses to assist in pulling the log wagon into town.

Patriotism

The stomach is a larger factor in "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" than most people are aware. Patriotism can withstand hunger but not dyspepsia. The confirmed dyspeptic "is fit for treason, stratagems and spoils." The man who goes to the front for his country with a weak stomach will be a weak soldier and a fault finder.

A sound stomach makes for good citizenship as well as for health and happiness.

Diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are promptly and permanently cured by the use of

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY. It builds up the body with sound flesh and solid muscle.

The dealer who offers a substitute for the "Discovery" is only seeking to make a little more profit realized on the sale of less meritorious preparations.
